

and do something, and not let the other fellow do it. I know it's difficult to get them to do it. But my point is when you let one board go one way, and one the other, I would hope that Senator Haberman's dream would work out, nothing would I work for harder and longer. But what I see in this particular bill is I see the sorghum growers going one way, I see the cattle industry the other way, and I see the wheat growers going the other way. The idea of the farm organizations with the legislation ability, they coordinate these groups. If this would happen I would be there the first to work the hardest and the longest. But I'm wondering if you have taken away, by this bill, the entire incentive for our regular legislative farm organizations to buckle in and do their work. That is my only concern.

PRESIDENT: We are discussing the Vickers amendment to LB 60. The Chair would announce, first, that Senator Goll has a guest under the north balcony. Mr. Wayne Lipps of Tekamah. Welcome to the Legislature, Mr. Lipps. Stand and be recognized and we'll welcome you. Next on the Vickers amendment, on LB 60, the Chair recognizes Senator Landis. Then Senator Hoagland, Lamb and Pappas.

SENATOR LANDIS: Oh, Mr. Speaker, I was going to get into it on the ag land valuation question and point out what the practices out west, that Senator Nichol was talking about, might point out and justify the variations. It really isn't germane to LB 60. I'll save it for another day. Let somebody else speak more on the subject.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall the debate cease on the Vickers amendment to LB 60? All those in favor of ceasing debate vote yes, opposed vote no. The question before you is, shall debate cease on the Vickers amendment to LB 60? Vote yes or no. Please record your vote. Please record your vote on shall we cease debate. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails. Debate ceases. Senator
